PROFILE

Dr. Erica Baker is a Registered Psychologist and the owner of Erica Baker Psychological Services Limited, a private practice in operation for 12 years that currently has 15 psychologists. Erica has a PhD in Clinical Psychology from McGill University (2003). Erica specializes in neuropsychological, psycho-vocational, psychoeducational, and DSM5 diagnostic assessments (e.g., ADHD, PTSD, Depressive Disorders and Anxiety Disorders). Erica has worked as an independent contractor providing neuropsychological and psychoeducational services at the IWK Children's Hospital, the Nova Scotia Rehabilitation Centre – Acquired Brain Injury service, and the Nova Scotia Hospital. The majority of her current work involves assessment of individuals with known or suspected traumatic brain injury, including concussion. Dr. Baker has conducted neuropsychological assessments with more than 300 individuals with traumatic brain injury. She is a board member of the Brain Injury Association of Nova Scotia, a member of the steering committee of Concussion Nova Scotia, an Advisory Committee member of the Nova Scotia Provincial Acquired Brain Injury Strategy, and is actively involved with Bridgeway Academy, a school for children with learning challenges. Dr. Baker regularly conducts assessments for insurance companies, lawyers, Department of Community Services, employers, healthcare service companies, Veterans Affairs and WCB, among others.
